

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Bernice Pringle Fowler

SUNRISE
MARCH 11, 1950

SUNSET
AUGUST 5, 2026

Welcome Home

We know that when our time on earth is over,
we will be welcomed into the loving arms of Jesus.

Though we will miss her dearly,
we find comfort knowing that Bernice has been embraced with eternal peace, joy, and everlasting life in Heaven.

*"I am the resurrection and the life.
He who believes in me will live,
even though he dies."*

– John 11:25

Life Reflections

Bernice Pringle Fowler was the first child born to Oderian Pringle Moore and Prince Carmack on March 11, 1950, in St. Louis, Missouri. Bernice was preceded in death by her father, Prince Carmack, mother, Oderian Pringle Moore, stepfather, Augustave Moore, brothers, Ricardo Carmack and Earl Carmack, sister, Laura Carmack, her great-aunts, Creselle Taylor and Omearion Pringle, and uncles: Harvey Taylor and William Pringle.

Bernice had a strong belief in GOD, and she accepted JESUS CHRIST as her Lord and Savior at an early age.

Bernice attended Carver Elementary school and Beaumont High School where she graduated in June 1969. After graduating from high school, Bernice began working many jobs ranging from housekeeping to janitorial positions. Her final position that she worked in was with Famous Barr in the warehouse as a Material Handler and she retired at the end of December 2010 after years of dedicated service to Famous Barr.

Bernice transitioned from this life on Wednesday August 5, 2026.

She leaves to cherish her beautiful memory: daughters-Cheryl L. Fowler and Stacey L. Fowler, two sisters: Beatrice P. Vasser (Henry L. Ballard, Sr.) and Lennie Carmack; brothers: Renaldo P. Carmack, Michael L. Carmack, and Arthur F. Carmack; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Benediction

I am free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play

And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now... He set me free.
